

libor pešek

Spend the evening with Richard Strauss on another subscription concert of the Czech National Symphony Orchestra! Under the baton of the Chief conductor Libor Pešek the orchestra will accompany the Italian soprano Anna Chierichetti in The Four Last Songs, the composer's famous work. Though this frequently performed composition was the final completed work of Richard Strauss, the program will continue with his early works - the tone poems Don Juan and Also Sprach Zarathustra. Quite serious but splendid evening will be in the second half introduced by the Czech actor Vladimír Brabec, enhancing the work with a poetic text of Zarathustra's sayings.
